

Philippe Rosenberg, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor
Department of History
221 Bowden Hall
Emory University
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-8362
prosen2@emory.edu

EDUCATION

- B.A. Honours in History, Concordia University, Montréal, Québec, Canada, 1992. Graduated with Distinction.
- Ph.D. in History, Duke University, Durham, N.C., December 1999.
Dissertation: "The Moral Order of Violence: the Meanings of Cruelty in Early Modern England, 1648-1685." Director: Professor Cynthia B. Herrup.)

EMPLOYMENT

- Assistant Professor, Department of History, Emory University, August 2004 – present
- Visiting Assistant Professor, The Program in Cultures, Civilizations, and Ideas, Bilkent University, Ankara, Turkey, September 2003 - June 2004.
- Postdoctoral Fellow, Center for Humanistic Inquiry, Emory University, 2002-2003
- Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of History, Emory University, 2000-2002.

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

- Post-doctoral Fellowship, Center for Humanistic Inquiry, Emory University, 2002-2003.
- Ahmanson-Getty residential Fellowship, The Center for 17th- and 18th- Century Studies, UCLA, winter and spring Quarters, 2000. (Program: "The Global Eighteenth Century: The Four Corners of the Earth.")
- Dissertation Semester Fellowship, The Graduate School, Duke University, Fall 1999.
- Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship, 1997-1998.
- Doctoral fellowship, FCAR, Québec, 1996-1997.
- International Research Award, the Graduate School and the Center for International Studies, Duke University, 1996-1997.
- W.M. Keck and Fletcher Jones Foundation Fellowships, Huntington Library, 1996.
- Department Fellowship, the Graduate School, Duke University, 1992-1996.
- Masters Fellowship, FCAR, Québec, 1992-1994

CURRENT BOOK PROJECT

Negative Enlightenment: the Polemics of Brutality and the Pursuit of Restraint in seventeenth-century Britain.

PUBLICATIONS

- “Thomas Tryon and the seventeenth-century Dimensions of Antislavery,” William & Mary Quarterly, 61(4) (2004): 609-642.
- “Sanctifying the Robe: Punitive Violence in the English Press, 1650-1700,” in Paul Griffiths and Simon Devereaux (eds.), Penal Practice and Culture, 1500-1900 (London: Palgrave, 2004).
- “The Barbarian and the Pedagogy of Restraint.” The Center & Clark Newsletter 35 (Spring 2000): 2-3.

REVIEWS

- Elizabeth Foyster, Marital Cruelty: An English Family History of Violence (Cambridge University Press, 2005), in Journal of Interdisciplinary History (2007)

PAPERS DELIVERED

- “Protestant Interests, Diplomatic Realism, and the Renewal of the Anti-Catholic Ethos, 1655-1658.” NACBS national conference, Cincinnati, October 3-5, 2008. Panel: The Dilemmas and Domestic Imprint of Foreign Policy, 1603-1600.
- “Anti-Popery and the Waldensian Crisis: the contradictory terrain of international stances in the 1650s.” Antipopery: The Transatlantic Experience, c.1530-1850, The McNeil Center for Early American Studies, Philadelphia, September, 2008.
- “Media Campaigns and the Matrix of Humanitarianism in Seventeenth-Century Britain.” Georgia State University, Department of History, October 2007.
- “From Martyrology to Humanitarianism: Conscience and the Anti-Casuistical Bent in Britain and Beyond, 1683 to 1758.” American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies. Atlanta, Georgia, March 2007.
- “Inhumanity and the public Face of Pain: Social Suffering in seventeenth-century Opinion.” American Historical Association, Atlanta, Georgia, January 2007
- “From Violence to Atrocity: Acts of Belligerence and Acts of Cruelty in Civil War Propaganda.” Early Modern Terrorism: Atrocity and Political Violence, 1500-1700, Imperial war Museum North, Manchester, UK. November 2005.

- “The expansion of ‘atrociousness’ in seventeenth-century Britain.” (invited) Queens University, Kingston, Ontario, and McGill University, Montréal, Québec. January and February 2004.
- “Brutal Souls: The Politics and Pathology of Cruelty, 1640-1690.” Symposium on Violence, Politics, and Culture in early modern Europe, University of Mississippi, March 27, 2003.
- “A Pythagorean in the Seventeenth-Century? Thomas Tryon’s attack on slavery.” (invited) Bilkent University, Ankara, Turkey. December 2003
- “Conscience, Testimony, and Antislavery: a seventeenth-century perspective.” Conscience and the Early Modern World: 1500-1800, University of Sheffield, 7-9 July 2002.
- “Nero Resuscitated: Quakers, Cameronians and the Response to Punitive Violence, 1670-1690.” Northeast Conference on British Studies, Montréal, Québec, October, 28, 2000.
- “Bloody and Barbaric Cruelties: The Body and the Psychology of Indignation in late seventeenth-century England.” Seminar on Society, Belief and Culture in the Early Modern World. Institute of Historical Research, University of London. February 12, 1998.
- “Subjects and Massacres: The Semiotics of Mass-Atrocities in the Reign of Charles II.” North American Conference on British Studies, Pacific Grove, CA, November 2, 1997.

RESPONDENT

- “The State and the Maintenance of Authority, 1500-1800.” Northeast Conference on British Studies, Boston, November 14-15, 2008.
- “Uses and justifications of violence in Great Britain and its empire, from the 16th to the 19th centuries.” Northeast Conference on British Studies, Montréal, Canada, October 1-2, 2004.

TEACHING

Undergraduate

- History 495: Introduction to Historical Interpretation (Honors Seminar).
<http://userwww.service.emory.edu/~prosen2/495.htm>
- History 487: Junior / Senior Colloquium: Morals, Reputations, and Trust, 1500-1800.
<http://userwww.service.emory.edu/~prosen2/487.htm>
- History 312: Medieval and Renaissance England.
- History 313: The Making of Britain, 1550-1750
<http://userwww.service.emory.edu/~prosen2/313/default.htm>
- History 314: Celtic Fringes: Ireland, Scotland, and Wales to 1800.
<http://userwww.service.emory.edu/~prosen2/314.htm>

- History 201: The Formation of European Society, from Late Antiquity to the early modern Era.
<http://userwww.service.emory.edu/~prosen2/201/default.htm>
- History 190: Freshman Seminar: Witchcraft and With-Hunts
- Cultures, Civilizations, & Ideas 111-112, “The Subject of Culture,” I and II (at Bilkent University, Ankara)
- Interdisciplinary Studies 385: Justice and the Trial: from medieval to modern.” (at Emory University, 2003)

Graduate

- History 513: Topics in Early Modern British History
- History 583: Introduction to Advanced Historical Study
- History 500: Colloquium on European Historiography

SERVICE

- Academic Standards Committee, Emory College. Fall 2006-present.
- Member of the Graduate Committee, 2007-8.
- Honors Coordinator, Department of History, Spring 2007
- Member of the Undergraduate Committee, Department of History, 2006-7
- Faculty Liaison to History Honors Society Phi Alpha Theta, 2005-6
- Coordinator, Vann Seminar in pre-modern European History, 2005-6

LANGUAGES

- Fluent in French and English.
- Basic reading knowledge of Latin and Italian.
- Rudimentary Turkish.